

BookConnect

Building community one book at a time

A Bookworm Central Online Offering
for all ages K-12

A school-wide, grade-wide, or classroom-wide literacy initiative providing students a chance to explore curated books and stories and to share their thoughts and understanding of the world around them with peers, teachers and family members.

Program Highlights

- Builds a sense of community by offering students a shared experience.
- Gently introduces or brings focus on topic(s) of relevance within a community.
- Encourages a mindful dialogue among students, teachers, and/or parents.
- Helps develop a strong home/school connection.
- Brings schools a literacy initiative as a meaningful fundraiser or as a service.
